

Towing – tie everything securely

Halo Spring 2010

When towing please take particular care that all parts of the boat are securely tied on. End of last season there was report of an incident where a mast came off a towed dinghy and killed another road user. It may have been a freak accident, but no one wants to risk it happening to them.